What is Project Management exp and Education means?

What is project management experience as recognized by PMI?

- NO need to carry the job title 'Project Manager' but must be assigned the responsibility of managing and taking care of projects.
- The experience is about project management (as defined in the PMBOK Guide) and not just carrying out project works managed by others.
- Must have experience in all the lifecycle phases of projects (i.e. 5 process groups of the project management lifecycle, including: initiating, planning, directing, monitoring & controlling and closing the project). PMI does not require you to have experiences from the 5 process groups from every project. That means you can just involve in initiating in Project A, closing in Project B and all 3 others in Project C.

What is project management education as recognized by PMI?

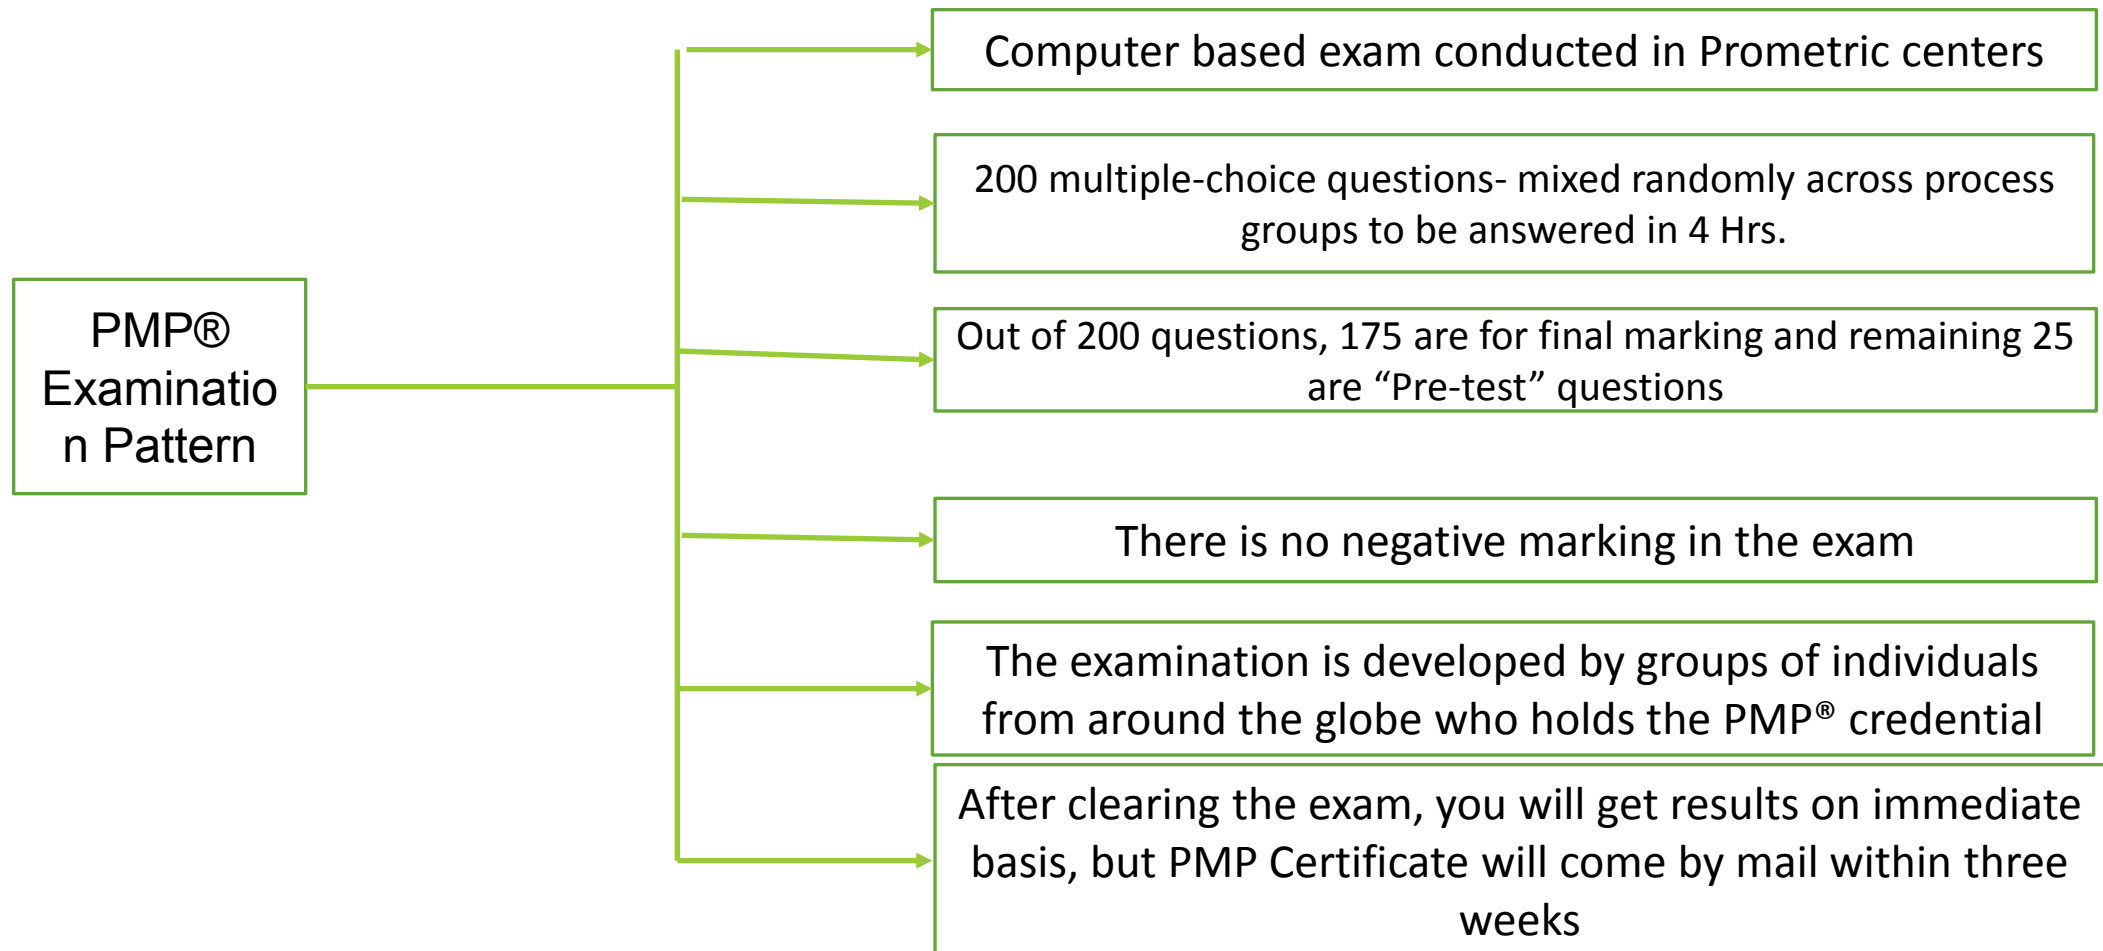

You can satisfy the education requirements by the successful completion of courses, workshops and training sessions offered by one or more of the following types of education providers:

- Training companies or consultants (e.g., training schools)
- Distance-learning companies, including an end-of-course assessment
- University/college academic and continuing education programs
- Employer/company-sponsored programs
- PMI Registered Education Providers (R.E.P.s)*
- PMI chapters or communities of practice*

The following education does not satisfy the education requirements:

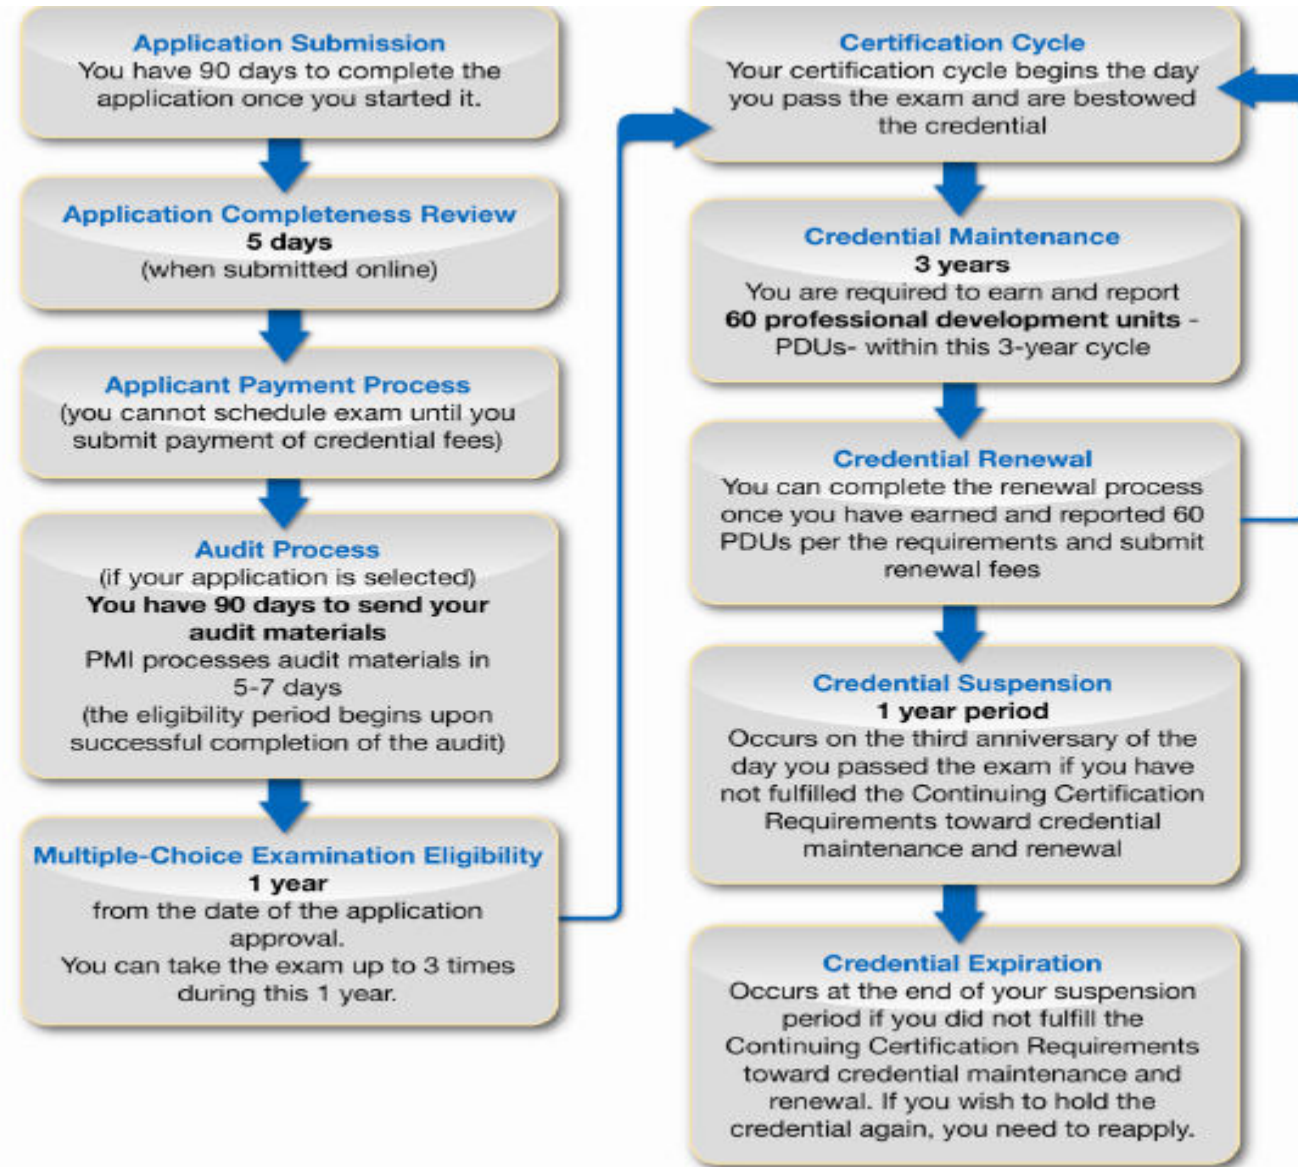

- PMI chapter meetings*
- Self-directed learning
